

MON CHOU

please ensure you've read the guide lines listed below before you submit your editorial:

- anyone is eligible to submit (photographers, stylists, makeup artists, etc.)
- submitter must provide information regarding the entire team who worked on the submission
- when submittings please email us directly and not under a BCC

what to submit:

- info about submitter
- story script
- zipped file images in low resolution and pdf
- team and styling credits

how to submit:

- send your images in low resolution for the first check
- once approved your editorial is requested to be sent in the following format: all the images provided in high resolution, 350-400dpi RGB (JPEG or TIFF)
- please submit a zip archive containing images, team and styling credits throw email or wetransfer.com for larger files to collaboration@monchoumagazine.com terms and condition for submitting:

- all the images and text sent has to be copyright free: the submitted works must be all done by yourself
- if which ever submissions get involved with any copyright entanglement because of the above, your eligibility will automatically be revoked: you will be responsible for all the legal consequences under all circumstances regardless of mon chou's unawareness or not
- in order to achieve a better page layout design, mon chou also has the right to use, enlarge, reduce and/or crop the original photograph once submitting, you accept all the agreements above.

please note, only the editorials in line with the mon chou project and style will be considered.